1 OBJECT OF THE CONTRACT

The Notification Service is a special free of payment service of UniCredit Bank Austria AG in connection with the use of OnlineBanking and BusinessNet (referred to as "eBanking" or "eBanking products" in the following). After the Customer has signed up for the Notification Service, personal and customer-related information will be sent to the mobile telephone number and/or e-mail address provided by the Customer if expressly selected by the Customer. The service can be cancelled at any time by the Customer in eBanking. In addition, the order information (mobile telephone number, e-mail address, events that trigger the transmission of data) can be changed by the Customer at any time in eBanking.

If the Customer has any reason to believe that the transmitted data could be misused (e.g. in the case of theft or loss of a mobile phone), he or she must take all reasonable measures to prevent this from happening. For example, blocking the telephone, changing the password for the e-mail account, cancelling the Notification Service or changing the mobile telephone number or e-mail address used for the Notification Service.

2 TERMINATION OF THE NOTIFICATION SERVICE

The service is arranged for an unlimited period and can be terminated by the Customer at any time in eBanking. From this point forward, UniCredit Bank Austria AG will no longer send text messages or e-mails to the Customer.

The termination of all agreements for the use of an eBanking product (such as the agreement for the use of OnlineBanking or the agreement for the use of BusinessNet) that the Customer has concluded with UniCredit Bank Austria AG automatically results in the termination of the Notification Service.

The service can be terminated by UniCredit Bank Austria AG at any time with a period of notice of two months and without any reasons being stated.

3 LIABILITY

UniCredit Bank Austria AG shall be liable for damages incurred by the Customer caused by its intentional actions or gross negligence within the limits of the law. UniCredit Bank Austria AG shall be liable for damages caused by its agents pursuant to § 1313a ABGB only if the damages are the result of gross negligence and the action was necessary for the fulfilment of the provisions of the contract.

4 FINAL PROVISIONS

Changes to these Terms and Conditions for the Notification Service agreed between the Customer and UniCredit Bank Austria AG shall be considered as accepted by the customer after expiry of 2 months following receipt of the notification of the proposed amendments if UniCredit Bank Austria AG has received no objections from the customer by this time. This Notification to the Customer may be made in any form agreed with him or her. Any agreement made with the Customer on the delivery of statements and declarations from UniCredit Bank Austria AG also applies to information on changes to the Terms and Conditions for the Notification Service.

In the notification, UniCredit Bank Austria AG shall draw the Customer's attention to the fact that the Terms and Conditions for the Notification Service are to be amended and to the fact that his or her failure to file an objection will be deemed to be consent to the amendment after expiry of 2 months following receipt of the notification. UniCredit Bank Austria AG will also publish a comparison of the provisions of the Terms and Conditions for the Notification Service that are being amended and the complete version of the new Terms and Conditions for the Notification Service in electronic form in the eBanking products, and will provide this information to the Customer in printed form at its offices or by regular mail upon request. UniCredit Bank Austria AG will inform the Customer of these options in its notice on the proposed amendments.

In the event that such changes to the Terms and Conditions for the Notification Service are planned, the Customer, if he or she has entered into the agreement as a consumer, shall be entitled to terminate his or her framework agreements for payment transaction services, especially the current account agreement, the agreement for the use of OnlineBanking and the agreement for the use of BusinessNet, with no period of notice before the changes take effect.

The General Terms and Conditions of UniCredit Bank Austria AG shall also apply to this agreement. The regulations contained in these Terms and Conditions shall however take precedence over the General Terms and Conditions of UniCredit Bank Austria AG.
