CRS SELF-CERTIFICATION – Legal entity (regarding GMSG)

This self-certification is provided pursuant to the Common Reporting Standard (CRS) and the Austrian GMSG (Gemeinsamer Meldestandard-Gesetz), which has been in force since January 1, 2016 and which implements EU Directive 2014/107/EU. These regulations form the legal basis for the automatic exchange of financial account information between participating jurisdictions.

In line with these obligations, the following information confirms the CRS status of UniCredit Bank Austria AG, tax residency, and relevant identification details included.

Although UniCredit Bank Austria AG qualifies as a reporting Financial Institution under CRS and is therefore not subject to reporting by other financial institutions, this document is provided for due use by third-party financial institutions that request CRS-related entity self-certification from UniCredit Bank Austria AG.
