

The terms and conditions for cross-border payments which are contained in this information that is displayed in the bank's premises are applicable to the settlement of all incoming and outgoing credit transfers, transfers between Bank Austria accounts of originator and beneficiary, and cheque payments ("Foreign Transaction") in which at least one non-resident and/or one foreign currency or a foreign currency account are involved. The terms and conditions for cross-border payments shall also apply in cases where the customers participating in the transaction are residents but one of the involved banks is located abroad, making the transaction a cross-border payment.

Non-residents pursuant to the Austrian Foreign Exchange Act (Section 1) are all natural and legal persons whose domicile, registered office or location of management is outside Austria or who do not stay in Austria longer than three months at a time. Consequently customers resident in other EU Member States remain non-residents as before.

Information on exchange rate pricing (foreign exchange dealing) by UniCredit Bank Austria AG

UniCredit Bank Austria AG executes payment orders for which a foreign currency needs to be converted into euros or from euros into a different foreign currency at the earliest possible exchange rate, depending on availability of the foreign currencies listed on the exchange rate list. This exchange rate is determined in line with market practice in international foreign exchange markets, no later than around noon on the business day following the date on which the order has been issued, and is published in display of exchange rates at UniCredit Bank Austria AG. This means that the exchange rate which will be applied to the payment cannot be indicated at the time when the order is issued.

For currencies which are not listed in the display of exchange rates by UniCredit Bank Austria AG, the fixing of the exchange rate will depend on the foreign correspondence bank whose services are used and this process is used accordingly by UniCredit Bank Austria AG.

Important information: The regulations of the Payment Services Act (ZaDiG) at the time of receipt and implementation deadline do not relate to the exchange rate pricing, rather to the implementation of a payment order after completion of the formation of the exchange rate.

INTERNATIONAL PAYMENT SERVICES PROVIDED BY UNICREDIT BANK AUSTRIA

CROSS-BORDER PAYMENTS IN EUR WITHIN THE EUROPEAN UNION

The foreign transfer order ("EU-Binnenzahlungen") must meet all of the following criteria:

- Currency: euro (EUR)
- No amount limit
- Indication of beneficiary's bank must contain a valid IBAN ("International Bank Account Number") and BIC ("Bank Identifier Code"). In the SEPA area the inclusion of the BIC does not affect execution of a SEPA payment.
- Cross-border payment within the EU member states and the EEA member states Iceland, Liechtenstein and Norway
- No special instructions (e.g. by cheque, advice, urgent etc.)
- Shared fees (applies only for credit transfers): Bank charges in Austria are borne by the payer, and charges outside Austria by the beneficiary. Other fee options are not possible.

Such foreign transfer orders are executed on the terms which have been agreed with the customer for domestic payments
